Ludlow St. John	£9,000	Replacement heating system
Tong	£5,000	Renovation of vestry
Upton Magna	£10,000	Repairs to drainage, replacement of ceiling plaster. This church has an unusual dedication (St. Lucia), only two in England and patroness of eyes. An early building with Norman nave and chancel, also some cut-down Roman stones with lewis slots. Fine east triplet, long lancet windows in Early English style. In 1860-1 it was drastically but enrichingly restored by G. E. Street- he of Royal courts of Justice in Fleet Street. He built the rectory and village hall at the same time. It also has some interesting wall paintings, stained glass and early bells, one 1499 from Exeter.
